

S1-04 “Issues of Energy Management for Distributed Energy Generation”

Dr. Wolfgang Woyke

(EON Energie AG, Germany)

Abstract

Up to now large units are connected to the high voltage grid. But there is a clear trend to distributed generation to be connected to the 400 V grid. There will arise a number of problems concerning load dispatching, security and economic optimization to energy management systems of regional distribution units.