

The 2019 General Meeting and PIESA-IERE South Africa Forum
October 28-31, 2019

Is the technological revolution opening up new avenues for rogue entities to exploit?

Rens Bindeman
Technical Advisor, the South African Revenue Protection Association
South Africa

Keywords:

Abstract

As new technologies are introduced, processes change and these creates loopholes that criminals could exploit. This paper will focus on a new threat that has been identified that could be devastating to African Utilities and will relate to the measures taken to analyzing this phenomena and the establishment of Task Team that is trying to find solutions and provide guidelines to Utilities on how to effectively minimize the losses.